Opis produktu

T4'20 chassis is designed and developed for the centrally positioned layshaft. The chassis is completely redesigned to work with the narrower mounting bulkheads and allows to mount both longer suspension arms as well as optional short arms.

The alu solid chassis gives better control, stability and makes the car easier to drive in high traction carpet conditions.

Extensively tested and recommended for high- and very-high traction tracks, this narrow chassis is CNC-machined from 2mm premium Swiss 7075 T6 and additionally black coated.
